

Choosing Works for Part 1

In choosing texts for Part 1 the following should be born in mind:

Students need to be exposed to a wide variety of text types

Texts can be chosen from any sources, genres and media. Short works of literature can be included, but should not be the main focus of study

Focus should be given to

- an analysis of how audience and purpose affect the structure and content of texts
- The impact of language changes
- The way meaning is shaped by culture and context

Texts should be chosen related to the topics suggested in the Language and Literature Guide p18.

Outcome of this area of study

Further oral activity (both HL and SL)

Written task (at HL and possibly at SL)

Preparation for Paper 1.
